Family Reunion

Written by Chad & Dad Richardson
Illustrated by Ashleigh Corrin

AGES 4 – 10 | In this contemporary #OwnVoices tale, a boy is reluctant to go to his family reunion, which he's sure will be boring. Vivid, poetic language and rich illustrations bring readers along for the boy's emotional journey, as he ultimately finds himself enjoying the large and joyous gathering in spite of himself. This modern kid's-eye view depiction of a Black American extended family reunion celebrates the importance of kinship and intergenerational ties.

To Live Barefoot is to:

believe in the transformative power of storytelling know that everyone can make a difference and everyone has a right to be here encourage creative play, remembering that to play is to learn tread softly

embrace the connection between grassroots networking and global communication honor diversity in every sphere of life: cultural and social; ecological and economic; emotional and spiritual balance doing with being: doing work with being alive make mistakes, laugh and cry, learn a little more, and start again celebrate the art of story-making in all of its forms: in songs and stories, arts and crafts, music and movement step into our power as individuals who know that together we are part of something more powerful than we can be on our own.
