Opening children's hearts, minds and worlds

Our vibrant Spring 2022 Collection blooms with themes of sustainability, compassion and courage. We continue to inspire budding environmentalists with our newest singalong about urban gardening (Rooftop Garden, page 6) and a unique story about cleaning up pollution and creating art (Scrap Metal Swan, page 8).

Zahra's Blessing (page 5) immerses young readers in a multi-layered story of Muslim traditions, generosity and belonging, while Nour's Secret Library (page 3) tells the true story of brave children who created a refuge of books in a landscape of war.

As always, the timely lessons in these books are delivered with gorgeous artwork from both established and up-and-coming illustrators.

Happy browsing,

BASED ON A TRUE
STORY

HOPE and Resilience

Discover how brave Nour creates a beautiful, secret world of books amidst the hardships of war.

Wafa' Tarnowska is an award-winning writer, translator and storyteller. She was born in Lebanon and currently lives between the UK and Poland, writing and translating books and documentaries as well as offering storytelling sessions in English and Arabic. Wafa' has also written The Arabian Nights for Barefoot Books.

Vali Mintzi was born in Romania and studied at the prestigious Bezalel Academy in Jerusalem. She works as an illustrator and graphic editor for the children's art magazine Einayim. Her vibrant and evocative style is influenced by painters such as Bonnard, Hockney and Matisse. She has also illustrated The Girl with a Brave Heart for Barefoot Books.

Illustrations and interiors from Nour's Secret Library

An age-appropriate window into the lives of children who are surrounded by war.

Detailed endnotes include information about Syria, the real secret library of Daraya and famous libraries of the Middle East.

NEW! MARCH 2022
Nour's Secret Library
Written by Wafa' Tarnowska and illustrated by Vali Mintzi
AGES 6-10 | Forced to take shelter when their Syrian city is plagued with bombings, young Nour and her cousin begin to bravely build a secret underground library. Based on the author's own life experience and inspired by a true story, Nour's Secret Library is about the power of books to heal, transport and create safe spaces during difficult times. Illustrations by Romanian artist Vali Mintzi superimpose the colorful world the children construct over black-and-white charcoal depictions of the battered city.

A RAMADAN BLESSING

Zahra's wish for a sister gets fulfilled in an unexpected way in this beautiful, multi-layered story of loss, empathy and hope.

When Shirin Shamsi became a mother, she began writing stories her own children would see themselves in. When she's not busy writing for children, Shirin spends her days sharing her love of Barefoot Books as an independent bookseller in her community. She currently lives in the city of Darien, Illinois, USA, with her husband and cat.

Manal Mirza is a designer and illustrator based in Chicago, Illinois, USA. Being a young Muslim American Pakistani woman, her illustrations highlight the different identities that she juggles day to day. Manal brings her own positive outlook to her work, aiming to empower women around the world.

Zahra's Blessing A Ramadan Story
Written by Shirin Shamsi and illustrated by Manal Mirza

AGES 4-9 | Zahra hugs her cherished teddy bear and prays that Ramadan will bring her a longed-for sister. When her bear subsequently goes missing, Zahra finds herself grappling with intense feelings of loss. Over the next few weeks, as she volunteers with her mother at a local shelter for asylum seekers, Zahra befriends a displaced child, resulting in a newfound sense of gratitude and an unexpected Ramadan blessing.

Danna Smith is a poet and an award-winning author of numerous books for children, including the critically acclaimed nonfiction picture book, The Hawk of the Castle: A Story of Medieval Falconry. She currently lives and writes in northern California, USA.

Chilean artist Pati Aguilera has lived a large part of her life in the city of Santiago, where she studied design and became a book illustrator. Pati creates her artwork digitally so she can change the composition and palette until she achieves the desired balance and harmony.

Taking care of the planet is a form of empathy — and we can nurture it! But how do we inspire the next generation of Planet Protectors? We start by teaching children about conservation, community and connectedness. Our sustainability titles present scientific information in ways children can understand — and provide concrete ideas for how they can make a difference in their communities every day. To find more titles about sustainability, look for our Planet Protector badge throughout this catalog!

FROM TRASH TO Treasure

Illustrations and interiors from Scrap Metal Swan

New!

Watch creativity flow from unexpected places as neighbors gather to clean up a local riverfront!

Joanne Linden grew up in Kinney, a small town in northern Minnesota, USA, where everyone knew each other and children spent their free time at the small library or playing outside. Joanne loved to read picture books. She still does! Today, she lives in the woods of Eau Claire, Wisconsin, USA.

When Estrellita Caracol was a child, she loved stars, books and cutting out shapes from paper . . . and none of that has changed! Estrellita lives in Buenos Aires, Argentina, with her son and three cuddly cats. She loves to travel and make collages with artists young and old wherever she goes.

NEW! FEBRUARY 2022
¡Eso es mío! / That's Mine!
 Written by Sumana Seeboruth and illustrated by Ashleigh Corrin
AGES 1-4 | When one toddler in a childcare setting takes all the toy animals for herself, she discovers that monopolizing all the toys can be a bit lonely. Will offering one of the animals to another child help bridge the gap? In this gentle exploration of early friendship, toddlers will recognize the tension between wanting everything to be "mine!" and the desire to connect with other children.

NEW! MARCH 2021 La bendición de Zahra Un historia de Ramadán
 Written by Shirin Shamsi and illustrated by Manal Mirza
AGES 4-9 | Zahra hugs her cherished teddy bear and prays that Ramadan will bring her a longed-for sister. When her bear subsequently goes missing, Zahra finds herself grappling with intense feelings of loss. Over the next few weeks, as she volunteers with her mother at a local shelter for asylum seekers, Zahra befriends a displaced child, resulting in a newfound sense of gratitude and an unexpected Ramadan blessing.
