

Don't worry, our cute little crocodile will put up with being grabbed, cuddled and shaken. The 4 legs are easy for baby hands to grasp by their stretch string.

A special and versatile cutting pleasure for young chefs. And what's more it's healthy and nourishing, complete with the traditional sausage to put in the pot. The knife is easy to hold for cutting up everything to make sure that it will then fit in the pot. The "ingredients" are held together with Velcro. Which means nothing will now get in the way of repeated chopping fun. Of course the pot also forms part of the delivery. As do the carrot, potato, onion, sausage and knife.

New Products 2019

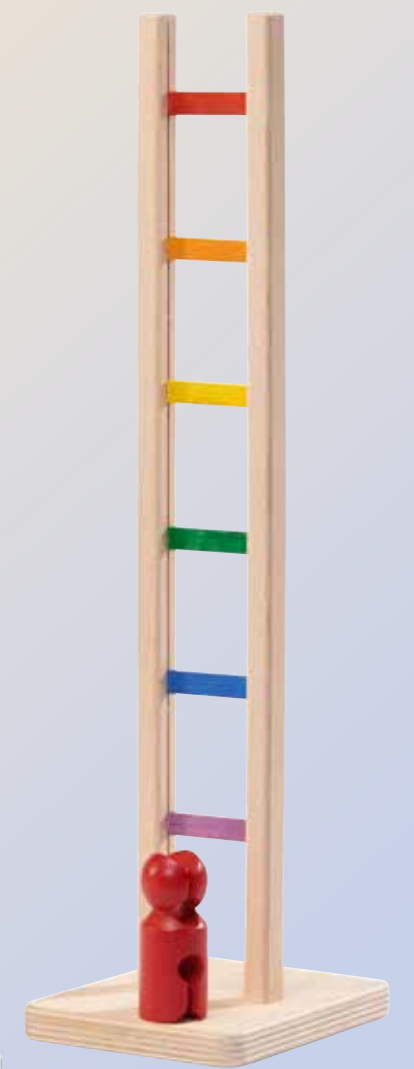

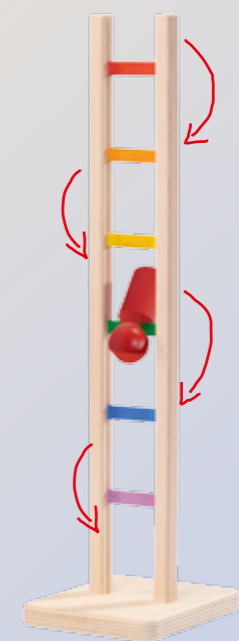

Perfectly finished, high-quality and sustainable – a nic product. The fantastic sound of the marbles as they rattle through gets the attention of small children and can also be calming! The marbles slowly fall downwards, creating the special rattling sound. At the crawling stage, our colourful and decorative toy is an interesting accompaniment for rolling. An all-rounder that will justify its place in the toy corner for a long time.

We all know the little climbing man that merrily falls down. Our sturdy climbing nic climbs down the colourful ladder efficiently, rung by rung, though without getting stuck!!! He's fascinating to watch, as he is a comfortable fellow (doesn't run too fast). He can also be played with even without his ladder, as he cannot be swallowed and will take just about anything children's hands get up to!

The playtime doctor definitely has a set of professional equipment in this case. Among other things, the stethoscope comes from medical specialist suppliers, although the sound has been carefully toned down for children's ears. In general, the extensive accessories are very realistic, making them especially attractive for trying out in play. The clever case also helps to make this "home visit" just about unique.
